

Roles in France.

Design and development of a AS/400 vRPG client server system to be implemented in Soustons, south west France, developed together with Dutch and German nationals in Appeldoorn, the Netherlands and Germany. Based from corporate head office in west London.

The requirements gathering and analysis required several visits to France and the Netherlands each of a week or two duration, and dealing with local management.

Autobar Industries

david@merlininternationalprojects.com